NEW YORK STATE'S
Essential Elements: Schools-to-Watch Program
Re-Designation Application (2019-20)

INSTRUCTIONS

Overview

Schools with middle-level grades that have been recognized as a New York State Essential Elements: Schools-to-Watch (EE: STW) school must, after three years, be re-designated to maintain its “In Good Standing” as an EE: STW school. The purposes of the re-designation process are to determine that the recognized school continues to:

1. maintain its trajectory toward excellence and
2. be a model middle-level school that is striving to be academically excellent, developmentally appropriate, socially equitable, organized to sustain continued growth and improvement, and an exemplar for the implementation of the Regents Policy Statement on Middle-Level Education and the State Education Department’s Essential Elements of Standards-Focused Middle-Level Schools and Programs.

Who Must Apply for Re-designation in 2019

The New York State middle-level schools that were initially recognized or re-designated as EE: STW schools in 2016 must be re-designated if they wish to maintain their “in good standing” as EE: STW schools.

Minimum Eligibility Requirements to Apply for Re-designation

EE: STW schools desiring to be re-designated must have at least TWO of the following grades: grade six, grade seven, grade eight. Schools seeking re-designation cannot be currently classified as a Focus or Priority school under New York State’s accountability system.

Evidence of Academic Excellence – Assessment Opt Out Concerns

The EESTW Leadership Team, Middle School Association, and the State Education Department understand the dilemma facing some applicants regarding accountability status where the participation rate on state assessments may fall below 95% in schools due to high opt-out rates. This is not a disqualifier for potential applicants. Since opt-outs are not under the control of the school or district, the difficulty lies in the reliability of the data on the state assessments being reported in the application in those instances. In demonstrating the evidence for the General Criteria (1-8) and especially Academic Excellence domain item number five, special attention should be paid to how the school uses multiple measures (formative and summative evaluation) aligned to the state standards to rate academic excellence. Some examples could include iReady, NAEP, NWEA, STAR data, or common formative assessments.

Re-designation Application Writing Protocol

The EE: STW program re-designation application process is designed so that schools themselves MUST complete the process. Re-designation applications prepared by external grant writers or paid consultants will not be accepted.

Re-designation Application Deadlines

ALL re-designation application materials must be submitted by Friday, July 29, 2019

Submission of Completed Re-designation Application

Re-designation application materials must be e-mailed to Brian Sherman, State Co-Director, EE: STW Program (brian.sherman001@gmail.com) and Christine Radez, Associate, Office of Curriculum and Instruction, NYSED (Christine.radez@nysed.gov) by Friday, July 29, 2019. One original signed paper copy of the Assurances pages must be sent by surface mail to Christine Radez as per the instructions on pages 7 and 8 (Steps 8 and 9).

HOW TO APPLY

(Please read carefully to insure that all Steps are completed correctly)

Begin by reading the re-designation application requirements:

- Before your school begins to prepare its re-designation application, convene your team to read and discuss the re-designation application requirements and procedures.
- Be sure that your school meets the minimum eligibility requirements. It must have at least TWO of the following grades: grade six, grade seven, grade eight. It may not be currently classified as a Comprehensive Support and Improvement or Targeted Support and Improvement school under New York State's accountability system.

The Essential Elements: Schools-to-Watch re-designation application procedure consists of the following nine steps –

Step 1: Become familiar with the EE: STW re-designation application and application development process.

Thoroughly study the re-designation application and the re-designation application process. The re-designation application itself consists of:

- Part I: Descriptive Information
- Part II: Narrative
- Part III: Recent Changes
- Part IV: Assurances
- EE: STW Self-Study and Rating Rubric downloadable at:
<http://www.nysed.gov/curriculum-instruction/essential-elements-schools-watch>
PLUS
- National Forum's STW Self Study and Rating Rubric to be completed on-line. See Step 2 for information on accessing this rubric.

Step 2: Secure access to the National Forum's STW on-line Self Study and Rating Rubric.

As soon as your school decides to submit a re-designation application – but no later than May 1, 2019 – contact Brian Sherman, Co-Director, New York State EE: STW Program, at brian.sherman001@gmail.com or Co-Director Christine Radez at chrsitine.radez@nysed.gov for instructions on how to access the National Forum's Schools-to-Watch (NF-STW) on-line Self Study and Rating Rubric Survey. All certified professional and paraprofessional staff must participate in this on-line data collection process in order to submit an eligible re-designation application for review. This access is vital to completing the final re-designation application due July 19, 2019. Re-designation applications that are submitted by schools that have not completed the on-line data collection component will not be reviewed.

Again, for information on how to access the NF-STW on-line Self Study and Rating Rubric Survey, contact: Brian Sherman or Christine Radez.

Step 3: Complete BOTH the Essential Elements: STW Self-Study and Rating Rubric AND the National Forum's STW (NF-STW) on-line Self-Study and Rating Rubric Survey.

Develop a process to complete both the EE: STW Self-Study and Rating Rubric that will accompany the re-designation application and the NF-STW on-line Self-Study and Rating Rubric Survey. All certified professional and paraprofessional staff should be involved.

- Using a collaborative, school-wide process complete one composite EE: STW Self-Study and Rating Rubric that will be submitted with your re-designation application. This copy MUST INCLUDE specific school policies, programs and activities that resulted in the criteria ratings. This section is not included in the electronic on-line survey. Use the following form to complete the EE: STW Self-Study and Rating Rubric and include with your re-designation application:

<http://www.nysed.gov/curriculum-instruction/essential-elements-schools-watch>

Assign a single, aggregated rating that reflects the collective perceptions of your school community for each of the 37 criteria contained within the four EE: STW domains.¹

- Academic Excellence
- Developmental Responsiveness
- Social Equity
- Organization Structure and Processes

NOTE: The single rating for each criterion contained within the four EE: STW domains should reflect the collective perceptions of your school's staff.

- Include narrative evidence of school programs, practices and activities under each of the 37 rating criteria in the 4 domain areas. Be accurate and rate your school appropriately and honestly. Involve all stakeholder groups fully in the self-study process. During the discussions of each of the dimensions, begin to build a list of details and evidence that supports the ratings and that will give substance and specifics to the written narrative. Include this evidence under each criterion in the space provided.
 - The completed, collaboratively-developed EE: STW Self-Study and Rating Rubric will include an overall rating 0-4 for each of the 37 criteria AND evidence of specific school programs and practices supporting each rating.

¹ The original four School-To-Watch domains and their criteria were first developed by the National Forum to Accelerate Middle Grades Reform, the sponsor of the Schools-To-Watch program nationally. The four domains and their criteria align fully and completely with the Regents Policy Statement on Middle-Level Education (2003) and the State Education Department's seven Essential Elements of Standards Focused Middle-Level Schools and Programs (2003) (as they are grounded in the same research base). The EE: STW Self-Study and Rating Rubric developed for use in New York State incorporates and merges both the State Education Department's seven Essential Elements and their attributes AND the National Forum's four domains and their criteria.

- IMPORTANT: After completing the EE: STW Self-Study and Rating Rubric, direct all professional and paraprofessional staff to complete the NF-STW on-line Self-Study and Rating Rubric Survey.

Step 4: Gather the required information and edit, revise, and update Part I of the re-designation application (Descriptive Information).

NOTE: Please edit, revise, and update the Part I Descriptive Information contained in your original EE: STW application or your most recent re-designation application. If you don't have a copy please contact Christine Radez, NYSED, at 518-486-1744 or christine.radez@nysed.gov.

- Go to the NYS Education Department Website (www.nysed.gov) and attach copies of the 2016-17 and 2017-18 School Report Cards to the EE: STW re-designation application.

Step 5: Edit, revise, and update Part II of the original EE: STW application or the most recent re-designation application (Narrative).

NOTE: Please edit, revise, and update the Part II Narrative of your original EE: STW application (or your most recent re-designation application). If you don't have a copy, contact Christine Radez, NYSED, at 518-486-1744 or christine.radez@nysed.gov.

- Section A: Tell Us About Your School (not to exceed 8 pages total) For each of the four EE: STW Self-Study criteria (Academic Excellence; Developmental Responsiveness; Social Equity; and Organizational Structure and Processes), edit, revise and update the narratives of your original application (or re-designation application). Be sure to provide substantiating evidence that supports the new narratives.
- Section B: Continuous Improvement Efforts (2 to 4 pages) Provide an updated narrative (not to exceed 4 pages) that includes a year-by-year explanation of your school's continuous improvement efforts since designation (or re-designation). The narrative should cover the following three years: 2016-17, 2017-18, and 2018-19, and include the following:
 - i. The identified priority need areas, the planned improvement activities to address the priority need areas, evidence of the impact of the planned improvement activities, and Central Office support for the school's continuous improvement efforts for the 2017-18 and 2018-19 school years,
 - ii. For the 2018-19 school year: the priority need areas, action plans, anticipated outcomes, and expected support from the Central Office, and

- iii. Steps the school/district has taken to orient and acclimate new staff and to ensure they are familiar with the EE: STW program, the Essential Elements of Standards-Focused Middle-Level Schools and Programs, and the culture and expectations of the school.

SPECIFICATIONS FOR WRITING THE PART II NARRATIVE (Sections A and B):

1. At the top of each page, identify the topic (e.g., Academic Excellence, Social Equity, Developmental Responsiveness, etc.) about which you are writing.
2. Also in the top header, include the school's name.
3. At the bottom of each page, place a consecutive page number.
4. The Part II Narrative must be typed or word-processed. Please use a 12-point font and allow left and right margins.
5. The Part II Narrative (Sections A and B) of the re-designation application should not exceed a total of 12 pages.

Step 6: Complete Part III (Recent Changes) of the re-designation application that asks for specific information on any changes in the district or school in the last three years.

- Provide additional information on what has happened over the past three years that may or may not have had an impact on your school including:
 - i. Changes in the Board of Education, Central Office Administration, and Building Administration.
 - ii. Turnover in the teaching staff.
 - iii. Budget defeats.
 - iv. Changes in the school's organization, structure, program, or demographics.
 - v. Major changes in the Master Schedule.
 - vi. Changes in how students are grouped and/or assigned to classes.

Step 7: Sign Part IV of the re-designation application (Assurances).

Step 8: Arrange all documents into a SINGLE electronic file in either MS Word or PDF format and e-mail copies to the following addresses:

christine.radez@nysed.gov and brian.sherman001@gmail.com

PART IV: ASSURANCES

Signature and Permission:

I am aware applications developed and written solely by consultants will not be considered, and I certify that the re-designation application (including narrative) preparation was a collaborative process involving site administrators, teachers, and other key stakeholders.

I give permission to the National Forum to Accelerate Middle Grades Reform, the New York State Middle School Association, the New York State Education Department, and the Essential Elements: Schools-to-Watch Leadership Team to publish the information and materials included in this application on their websites in order to help other schools move toward high performance and implement Regents Policy Statement on Middle-Level Education and the Department's Essential Elements of Standards-Focused Middle-Level Schools and Programs.

I understand that representatives of the Essential Elements: Schools-to-Watch program may conduct a site visit to my school during the 2019-20 school year, and that we will gladly host such a visit. Furthermore, if my school is selected as an Essential Elements: Schools-to-Watch school, a documentation team may visit the school in order to gather further information for a case study.
